

PRESIDENT IS VERY SICK MAN SAYS DOCTOR

ROYAL WELCOME ACCORDED BELGIUM'S KING AND QUEEN

Received at the City Hall by Mayor Hyman Who Extended Them Keys of City

Greeting of the Cheering Citizens Rivalled Any Ever Given to Any One

New York, Oct. 3.—(United Press)—The official welcome of King Albert and Queen Elizabeth and Prince Leopold to this country although deferred twenty-four hours after arriving, surpassed the enthusiasm displayed yesterday. Tens of thousands were massed in the batteries and vicinity when they landed on the Wanamaker yacht Noma, which they boarded in the North River. Immediately after they left for the hotel, other thousands lined up along north Broadway and watched the party as they motored through the city.

This was the luncheon hour for the financial district workers and they preferred giving force to the admiration of Albert of the Belgians to the more prosaic one of eating.

The greetings as they proceeded up Broadway rivalled any greeting in New York. The people gave cheer after cheer, and people from the top of the buildings threw millions of scraps of paper, a form which originated with the armistice celebration.

The king and queen entered the city hall. Mayor Hyman made the address of welcome to the king and queen. The king replied:

"I thank you heartily for your words of welcome. I appreciate highly the honor the city of New York does to make me one of its citizens. I prize all the more highly this manifestation because in Belgium the municipal institution have always in the past marked an important role in the public life of the country."

"I think that there is not in the history of the world another example like the city of New York, which has become one of the centers of universal activity. I am happy to be able to bear to it the salutation of Belgium."

Royalty Nearly in Accident

New York, Oct. 3.—King Albert and the royal party narrowly escaped an accident when they landed at the battery on the yacht Noma. As the yacht put into harbor the crew rushed to one side causing it to list dangerously. Officers and members rushed the crowd back and the yacht slowly righted.

Reservationists Enlarge Program

By L. C. MARTIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Oct. 3.—The program of the senate reservationists is to be broadened to include practically all matters covered by amendments that have been made or will be proposed to the peace treaty. It was established that not only do the proposed reservations contemplating the relief of the United States of any obligation to send troops abroad under Article X to preserve the territorial and political independence of foreign nations against external aggression, but it is to include a prohibition against the use of American troops abroad for any purpose without the specific consent of congress. This is to cover such cases as the sending of troops to upper Silesia to help keep order.

President, Tired and Worn, Just Before His Physician Halted Tour

This unusual photograph of President Wilson was made in San Francisco. It was remarked at the time that he looked very much fatigued. Then came the news that he had cancelled the remainder of his speech-making tour in support of the league of nations. He did this under orders from Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his personal physician.

WILLIAM D. JAMIESON

All His Immediate Family Have Assembled at the White House

Consultation of Physicians Held--Slept But Little During the Night

Washington, Oct. 3.—President Wilson is a "very sick man" and his condition is less favorable, it was said by Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the president's physician, in a statement issued from the White House.

Grayson Bulletin

The following bulletin was issued by Dr. Grayson:

"The president is a very sick man. His condition is less favorable today and he has remained in bed throughout the day."

"After consultation with Dr. E. X. Dercum, Philadelphia, Doctors Sterling Ruffin and E. R. Stitt of Washington, who all agreed as to his condition, it was determined that absolute rest is essential for some time."

"The decision to call in a nerve specialist, Dr. Grayson said, was made as a precautionary measure. It also was explained it was desired to relieve the strain on Dr. Grayson who has been in almost constant attendance on the president since he was taken ill one week ago."

Several Consultations.

Several consultations have been held by Dr. Grayson with the naval doctors, Stitt and Dennis, but until today they had not seen the president.

Dr. Grayson also has called in Dr. George Deschweinitz, an eye specialist of Philadelphia, whom the president in the past has consulted about twice a year. Dr. Deschweinitz is expected to see the president within a few days.

Agree With Grayson

Dr. Dercum returned to Philadelphia tonight. Secretary Tumulty announced. After the consultation it developed that the physicians called in by Dr. Grayson had agreed entirely with his diagnosis of the president's ailment and approved, the course of treatment decided upon by him.

The name of Dr. Dennis, director of the naval dispensary in Washington, did not appear in the bulletin. Dr. Grayson gave out last night, but he was said to have been at the White House during the two-hour consultation.

There was much speculation in the capital tonight as to the president's real condition and concern generally was expressed.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 3.—(United Press)—President Wilson's condition this morning shows no improvement. It was learned officially at the White House. He slept little during the night.

A second consultation was held this morning between Dr. E. Stitt, head of a naval medical school, Dr. Sterling Ruffin, a Washington physician, and Dr. Cary T. Grayson. Later a statement was to be issued on the result of the consultation. The president's physical condition remains good. This was regarded as highly favorable by Dr. Grayson. His temperature is normal.

With the president are a trained nurse and Mrs. Wilson, who remains with him constantly and ministers to him as much as she can.

Secretary Tumulty declared that no matter how important it may be considered, nothing will be brought to the president's attention in a business way. Yesterday he was told of the vote on Fall's amendment and ratification of the peace treaty by the French chamber. These things seemed to encourage him, but nothing further will be presented to him since it is desired to keep his mind completely away from administration matters.

The president was to have appointed men to the round table industrial conference Monday but it was now feared his condition will prevent this.

Previously he had discussed the conference with Tumulty and if he is unable Tumulty will go ahead and follow his wishes previously expressed.

President's Family at White House

Washington, Oct. 3 (12:15)—Dr. Cary T. Grayson issued the following statement: "The president's condition is unchanged."

Samuel Gompers, president of the President's Physician Who Halted His Western Tour

It was Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, President Wilson's personal physician, who really ended his western tour in aid of the League of Nations. Admiral Grayson forbade the president to continue his activities, saying he could no longer stand the strain.

American Federation of Labor, called at the White House during the morning to ask Secretary Tumulty about the president.

Wm. McAdoo, the president's son-in-law and former secretary of the treasury, is also at the White House. Mrs. McAdoo will arrive this afternoon as will Mrs. Francis Sayre. Miss Margaret Wilson has been at the White House since the president returned from his tour.

President's Daughter to Washington
Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, President Wilson's daughter, left her this morning for Washington.

Prays For President's Recovery

Washington, Oct. 3.—The prayer of the chaplain of the house, Rev. Harry Couden, was an appeal for the restoration of the president's health.

While the president is confined to his bed and is not permitted to do any work he takes an interest in the affairs. Although his physical symptoms remain the same, according to Dr. Grayson, his temperature is normal and other conditions are really as good, he is greatly weakened. He takes nourishment but his appetite is not good. Grayson said that the rumors that there might have to be an operation are not true and the x-ray has not been used as reported.

The doctors that were called into consultation have agreed with Dr. Grayson in diagnosing his case as nervous exhaustion. Grayson said

36 of 45 Treaty Amendments are Defeated

All Were Designed to Limit American Participation on European Commissions

Washington, Oct. 2.—At last reaching the stage of action in its consideration of the peace treaty, the senate today swept aside in quick succession 36 of the 45 amendments which had been written into the document by the foreign relations committee.

The smallest majority recorded against any of the committee proposals was 15 and the largest was 28. All of the amendments considered had been introduced by Senator Fall of New Mexico, and were designed to curtail American participation in European settlements resulting from the war.

Nine Amendments Left

Of the nine amendments yet to be acted on, which relate to the Shantung section, two propose to equalize voting power in the league of nations and one would limit American representation on the reparations commission. Senate leaders thought tonight that the debate might run on for several days before another roll call was taken.

The Democrats presented a solid front against the amendments except for Senators Gore of Oklahoma and Thomas of Colorado. Seventeen Republicans, on the other hand, lined up against the first committee proposal to be considered, and most of them stood with the Democrats on all succeeding roll calls. Most of them announced they were for reservations which they believed would cover the same ground without endangering the treaty.

Another Makes Over 900 Miles, All Travel a Great Distance

(By United Press)
St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 3.—The balloon Kansas, piloted by Capt. Honeywell, has landed north of Cardinal, Ont., Canada, estimated at 900 air miles from St. Louis. Honeywell reported to officials here today. His message said: "I came down safely last night." Estimates of the Missouri Aeronautical association show Honeywell's return is the sixth balloon in the army-navy race that has now reported. Capt. Rasor, of Ohio, is believed the second, with a distance of eight hundred miles.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 3.—Ralph Upson, with the Akron, Ohio, flying club, took the lead in the race of the open balloon championship today when he reported from Durom, Quebec, a distance from St. Louis estimated at 1,000 miles, one hundred miles more than Capt. Honeywell traveled in the Kansas II. Upon reported he landed safely at 8:50 central time last night.

Traffic Conditions Are Improved

London, Oct. 3.—A communication issued from Downing street today stated that up to 11:30 no further applications for an interview had been made by the labor representatives in connection with the settlement of the railway strike.

Conditions in traffic were improved. Attempts at mediation last night failed to reach an agreement.

Attempt Made to Renew Negotiations

London, Oct. 3.—An attempt to reopen negotiations between the government and striking railway men was made shortly after noon today when labor leaders visited Premier Lloyd George with the hope of resuming mediation. Previously a communication issued from Downing street said that up to 11:30 this morning no further applications had been made by labor representatives for an interview with the premier. Conditions in traffic had improved this statement said.

The move today toward a renewal of negotiations came in the midst of a fear of a general disagreement or a breakdown over yesterday's efforts to reach an understanding. The officials of the national union of railway men announced they will not return to work unless receiving a clear idea of settlement.

Confer With Premier
London, Oct. 3.—The delegation of labor leaders formed to mediate in the railway strike called another conference with Premier Lloyd George this afternoon. Representatives of the railroad men accompanied the delegation it was announced.

SEPTEMBER SETS RECORD

Weather Report Shows Month Was Warmest Since 1871

September was a peculiar month from the weather man's point of view. Although having less sunshine, September was slightly warmer than the normal, as shown by the weather bureau records since 1871.
And, although there were more clouds than in the ordinary month, the rainfall was considerably below normal.

The mean temperature for last month was 64 degrees, while the average for September during forty-eight former years has been reached by the mercury during the month was 59 degrees and the lowest 41.
The percentage of sunshine for the month was .58. There were only eleven clear days.

During September one and a quarter inches of rain fell, while the normal amount, as shown by the records of forty-eight years, is three and a half inches. It was the driest September since 1899.

Auroras were noted twice during the month, on September 19 and 20.
The maximum velocity reached by the wind was 51 miles per hour September 21.

the Scandinavian-American Bank at Fargo

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(United Press)
—Closing of the Scandinavian-Amer-yesterday, is a political deal from start to finish and is intended to re-

GLOVES OF AMERICAN DESIGN

Neither Those of Novel or Plain Effects Are Likely to Be Imported From France.

With no novelty gloves from France, and plain French gloves exceedingly scarce, American-made novelty gloves, mostly for street wear, are coming into high vogue, and will be all the rage among women this fall, according to a number of leading manufacturers who are in close touch with the trade.

"Novelty gauntlets in two or three-tone combinations, with strap wrists, and also slip-ons, are all the go now," said the manager of the fancy goods division of a big New York house. "French lambs of domestic make are today in demand by the largest retail stores in the country. They come in silk and chamusettes, three rows in embroidery contrasting on white, with strapped wrists. Various designs are embroidered in the stripes upon the backs of the gloves in all the leading shades—heliotrope, brown, navy, tan and cordovan.

"You can get the plain gloves you want. Novelty and slip-ons are the things in demand today, and, as far as Europe is concerned, you cannot get any promises on deliveries on French merchandise."

Taking Out the Shine.

Men's and women's clothing is often discarded before it is worn out because of the objectionable "shine" which appears on the material after a short time. This can be remedied by sponging the garment with pure vinegar boiling hot. Rub the vinegar into the material plentifully and vigorously. Then press with pressing iron, as usual. This process should be repeated whenever the shine reappears.

Good Trimming Colors.

Jade green and tomato red when used as trimming or in combination with navy, brown or gray, are most desirable for even the conservative woman.

The New Paris Neckwear.

Cape effects in broad multi-tier collars, with high directive stocks, are a dominant note of the present neckwear fashion in Paris. Short-sleeved guimpes are also extensively worn and this fashion promises to be carried over for general use in the coming season.

Both white and colored neckwear is favored, white organdie and heavy white linen, with delicate rose pink crepe being extensively employed.

Fichu effects are also good and berths are coming steadily to the front.

FURS ALMOST BEYOND REACH

High Prices Will Force Many to Give Attention to Their Substitutes.

PONY SKINS MAY COME BACK

Whatever Happens, It Cannot Be Denied That the Garments of Natural Furs Are the Most Sumptuous of Recent Years.

Of course we are appalled at the tremendous cost of even the smallest pieces of fur, but when the manufacturers tell us that the cost of making is equal practically to the cost of the skins we must bow to the inevitable and pay if we can. Because of the peculiar conditions which exist in the fur world, we may look for a great vogue in the plush, velvet, astrachan and other materials which may be called "near" fur, as they give the same degree of warmth without costing anything like so much. Even pony skins are likely to return, it is hinted, and the so-called caracul also, writes Martha Goode Anderson in the New Sun.

It will be recognized at a glance that many of the new garments are really triumphs of the furmakers' art, for the soft and exquisite grace of many of the moleskin wraps would alone prove this assertion if those of us other poets were considered. Because of the small size of the soft and velvety made the makers of wraps of this rodent have achieved a beautiful result by blocking the skins in squares, which presents a handsomely-shaded surface. This effect is attained by the use of hot irons which mark the skins in squares or rows, running now and then along the bottom of the long dolmans and capes. One of the handiwork of the moleskin wraps is made up in a dolman effect by outlining a yoke across the back. From underneath this yoke the back of the wrap falls in rather flaring lines quite to the edge of the skirt. An enormous collar of the shawl type folds over the yoke in the back and extends quite to the waistline in front, where it fastens with a huge fur button. There are no sleeves, but long and deep slits at the sides for the arms. Inside the lining is of the handiwork and most beautiful of flesh-pink brocaded satin, with ample pockets fitted at the sides. Of course such a sumptuous wrap is intended for only sumptuous wearing, so to speak. Its cost is close to $1,000, while a companion coat of mink as soft as a baby's skin is well over $2,000. There is a story going the rounds of a certain newly rich lady who showed her new string of pearls to a wealthy woman whose wealth had been with her long enough for her to be entirely accustomed to it. Said the newest rich lady: "My pearls cost $200,000. What did yours cost, Mrs. Brown?" The answer came like a flash and a revelation, "I should hate to have mine look an oyster in the face."

Rage for Fox Skins Persists. To return now to our skins—furs. I mean, it is astonishing the way fox holds on. First we have a season when the white stoies are in such demand it seems impossible to meet it, then comes the wonderful cross fox, with its rich blend of yellow and brown, and then the no less beautiful pointed and silver skins. The rage for these beautiful fur pieces is just as insistent now as it was last fall, and again this spring. The long hair of the fox makes it particularly becoming to all and the many shades in which it can be bought have much to do with the demand. Black lynx, too, is a fur which never seems to lose its popularity. It, too, has the long and very soft and silky hair of the fox. Mink, with its shorter hair, has always seemed to be particularly suited to elderly women, but when it is combined, as it is this year, with deep rolling collars of seal or ermine or dyed skunk or some fur with a softer texture and a deeper color, nothing makes a more exquisite wrap. There seems to be a determined effort to produce a demand for monkey fur. It goes well as a trimming for other garments, as I have recently observed it used fringed on a voluminous and gorgeous evening cape of black satin, faced inside with orchid satin veiled in the same colored chiffon.

Sports Coats in Fur.

Last year muskrat came to be so much in demand as a winter sports coat that the price was pushed almost as high as seal. The muskrat coats are again in high favor for general utility wear, such as motoring, traveling, skating and such allied uses. The skins are blocked and matched with great perfection and made up into whole garments as nearly tailored as a fur coat can be. These are particularly esteemed by younger women, as are the short jackets of gray squirrel. The latter are very smart indeed when made up into the hip length styles and untrammelled by any other fur. Children's coats are especially in demand in this fur and some are also made up in the brown squirrel. As to the smaller wraps, the little coats which were brought out last season are again to be much used, for the fashion makers are kind enough to permit the use of a last year's model this year, thus doing away with the necessity of paying enormous prices for the making over. The Eton jacket is the newest in the coat models. The cape coats are of the same belted models used last year, fitted in at the back and flaring and full in cape effect in front. They, too, have the high, rolling shawl collars seen on all the new fall models. The demand seems to be greatest for the darker furs such as skunk, seal, sable, dyed muskrat and dyed squirrel, but as I said above these are just as often seen in a combination with one of the domestic furs in natural colors.

In selecting the short jackets it must be remembered that nearly all are fitted with the high choker collars and whereas one sees the shawl and rolling collars on the longer coats, dolmans and capes, the straight-around and high, tight collar seems to be preferred on the shorter coat. This of course permits the use of the extra stole if desired and is therefore advantageous.

Smaller Pieces Are Combined.

As to the demand for the smaller pieces, the one, two and three skins are made up in mink, sable, skunk and fox, though the latter is quite sufficient in one piece. The beauty of skunk cannot be denied. In one instance it is put together in a straight strip of the skins to make a stole at least a yard and a half long and half a yard wide. The skins, perfectly matched and blended, are marked by the hot irons where they are put together, and this sort of marking forms a good effect in the whole piece. The ends are finished with many tails sewed on like tassels. As to muffs, they are quaint and round and small, like the Kate Greenaway models. The fashion of using muffs disappeared somewhat last year when the fur dolmans and capes and long stoies entered. It was found that the long sides of the cape served as cover for the hands and gave sufficient warmth. However, muffs are to be much used this year.

BUILT ON STRAIGHT LINES

New Garments Really Are to Have Only a Little of the "Barrel" Effect Promised.

Designers flirt with the public fancy season after season by introducing styles that are out of the ordinary; that differ radically from the ones in use, and that have received general approval. The first offerings for the season immediately to come have not escaped. Practically every designer has brought out his or her own interpretation of the barrel overskirt, but many of them admit already that it is merely one of the novelties of the season and that it is not "taking" to any great extent.

The straight-line frock, according to the Kansas City Star, refuses to be ousted. The two styles that seem destined to hold sway for fall and winter are the simple straight-line dress and the more fitted redingote. Tunics, overskirts and pleated effects, especially when accented with pleating, are seen everywhere, but almost invariably a straight silhouette is adhered to.

Wool jersey cloth again will be a reigning favorite next season for utility frocks. Beige and gray are said to be leading colors.

STRANGE ECONOMY

One of the main reasons why the farmers of North Dakota feel so unitedly for the socialistic form of state government, which now prevails in that state, was the promise of greater economy in the management of the business of the state and a consequent reduction in the taxes levied upon real and personal property there.

For two years the political sirens have lured the farmers into the fold by means of this lowered taxes song.

That the farmers of North Dakota are doomed to bitter disappointment when they pay their taxes next January will be proven in another article.

One of the reasons why their taxes will be much higher we aim to present here.

Under House Bill No. 18 passed by the State legislature of North Dakota, absolutely under the control of the Nonpartisan League, there was created The Bank of North Dakota. This law was approved February 25th, 1919 by Governor Lynn J. Frazier, elected by and controlled by the bosses of the Nonpartisan League of the state.

The proof of these statements may be found on pages three to seven, inclusive, of the published session laws of 1919 of North Dakota.

It being established then that the Bank of North Dakota is a child of the Nonpartisan League, let us look a bit into the management up to the present time. Space permits but a brief glance just now. The information which we have at hand would occupy pages.

In the matter of salaries and expenses of officials connected with the bank the law is vague, no doubt inentionally. Section 4 states: "The total compensation of such appointees and employees, together with other expenditures, shall remain within the appropriation ($100,000) and earnings available each year for such purpose."

The leeway thus allowed seems to have been ample for those into whose care was given this precious undertaking.

The salary of the governor of the bank, Mr. F. W. Cathro was placed at $10,000 a year. As evidence of this we have a certified copy of the bill of Mr. Cathro dated August 9, 1919, for "salary of director general of the Bank of North Dakota from April 9th, to August 31st, 1919, inclusive, a period of 4 months and 22 days," amounting to $3,944.44. This bill was approved by J. D. Waters, manager of the Bank of North Dakota on August 19th, 1919 and by Governor Lynn J. Frazier as president of the state auditing board on August 28th, 1919.

Mr. Cathro has already surrounded himself in the bank with 46 assistants, all drawing salaries of good size, about whom we shall have something to say later.

Mr. Cathro, was the president of a small country bank in the village of Bottineau before he enjoyed the favor of the bosses of the Nonpartisan League.

Other state officials, upon election or appointment to office, moved to Bismark, the state capitol, and took upon more or less permanent residence there.

Not so Mr. Cathro.

He took up his abode in the McKenzie hotel, the most expensive in Bismark, and calmly presented to the state bills for his subsistence, room rent, auto rides, etc.

We have certified copies of these bills from the time he took office up to August 21st. From May 1st to May 30th these expenses amounted to $222.08.

From July 26th to August 21st the bill was $213.76. There was $35.30 for railroad fare, $115.70 for hotel and meals (it cost the farmers an average of about $1.38 a day to feed and sleep him) and of this amount $72.85 he does not appear to have furnished vouchers—there was $2.70 under the heading of "small items."

During this last period there was an item of $30.00 for an auto ride from Bismark to Balfour on July 26. By railroad over the Soo line the fare is $4.44 between the two points.

Again on July 29th Mr. Cathro presented a bill of $39.00 to the tax payers of North Dakota for an automobile ride from Bottineau to Bismark. All of this time the state was furnishing him mileage scrip books good on any of the railroads.

This long list, too long for complete publication here, is "approved for payment" by the state by F. W.

Z. T. WONG

Z. T. Wong of Shanghai is a student in the United States military academy at West Point, being the only Chinaman that has entered there in the past two years.

Cathro himself August 22nd, a unique proceeding in such matters, and signed on August 28th by the accompanying Governor Lynn J. Frazier as president of the state auditing board.

At this rate the farmers of North Dakota are paying Mr. Cathro's expenses, beside his fat salary, at the rate of about three thousand dollars a year—more money than a majority of these tax payers themselves earn in a year.

Such a proceeding is unheard of in Minnesota in any branch of the state government.

Of all of the statements herein made we hold proof certified by State Auditor of North Dakota Carl R. Kositzky.

For a program aimed to reduce taxes in North Dakota can you beat it?—Anoka Herald.

EMPLOYEES OF U.S. BUILD BIG UNION

THEIR ORGANIZATION GROWING DESPITE OPPOSITION OF MANY CONGRESSMEN.

WHAT IT IS WORKING FOR

Already Has Exerted Considerable Influence on Congress—Officers Deny Danger Exists of Any Strike Against the Government.

By JAMES P. HORNADAY.

Washington.—During recent weeks a considerable number of congressmen have taken the position in public addresses that the employees of the federal government should not be permitted to organize. In spite of the opposition that has been voiced, the national federation of federal employees continues to grow. It now has more than 50,000 members, and organizers were recently dispatched from headquarters here to every state with instructions to attempt to enroll all federal employees in the union.

So it looks as if the organization had come to stay. Thus far it has pursued a conservative course.

Luther C. Steward, president of the organization, asserts that it is working for the following things: A living wage for all government employees; retirement with pay for all superannuated employees; standardization of duties and wages and automatic increase in pay based on merit; a federal personnel board, with authority to adjust salaries and conditions of employment as circumstances warrant; equal pay for equal work for government employees, men and women; equal suffrage; greater political freedom for federal employees; a real merit system, including a non-partisan civil service commission to succeed the present bi-partisan commission, and a training school where all government employees may be given an opportunity to study all executive positions, this school to be maintained by the federal government.

Its Influence on Congress.

Something like 30,000 government employees here have become members of the organization within the last fifteen months. They are exerting influence on congress. To this influence may be traced the defeat of legislation recently proposed to lengthen the working hours of government employees without increase in pay; the enactment of a law giving a 10 per cent annual increase in salary to all government employees here receiving $1,200 or less and an increase of 5 per cent for all government employees receiving from $1,200 to $1,800 a year; the enactment of legislation providing for a flat increase of $10 a month for all employees receiving up to $2,500 a year; legislation providing for the creation of a joint committee on reclassification of salaries in the departments, a commission that is now at work.

The objectors to the government employees' organizing have as a rule voiced the fear that the time would come when the organized employees would strike. The present officers of the organization say no such danger or possibility exists. It is asserted that a vast majority of the employees who have joined the federal union were assured by the officers of the union that a strike against the government would never be called. Nevertheless there is a good deal of uneasiness among members of congress over the possibility of the government's being embarrassed by a general strike of its employees at some time in the future.

Awaiting the Conference.

The national capital has temporarily escaped any such calamity as befell Boston, when the police force in that city organized and then struck, by agreeing that neither side to the controversy here shall make any move until after the October 6 conference. The last development before President Wilson asked the District commissioners not to take any further action with respect to the course being pursued by the police force, was an application in court by the policemen's union for an order restraining the federal government as represented by the commissioners for the District of Columbia, from interfering with the alleged right of policemen to join the union.

Both the employees in the departments who have become affiliated with the union and the members of the police force who have joined the union will ask the October 6 conference to say that federal government employees as well as state and municipal employees have the right to join the labor unions. Some of the men who will sit in the conference will, it is understood, take the position that if the general right of employees of the nation, state or municipality to organize is recognized, a distinction shall be made between the employees who are clothed with police authority and those who are not.

SCHOOL THRIFT DAY IS NAMED

Pupils Called Upon to Register Throughout Nation on October 3.

CARTER GLASS SENDS LETTER

Secretary of Treasury Commends Children for What They Did During War and Urges New Effort at Saving.

October 3 has been designated by the government as "National Thrift Registration Day" in the schools of America. In this connection Carter H. Glass, Secretary of the Treasury, has written a letter to the school children of America. This letter will be widely distributed and each teacher is expected to read it in school on Friday, Oct. 3. The Secretary's letter follows: "To the school boys and school girls of America: In addressing the 20,000,000 or more school boys and girls of this country, I am addressing the citizenship—the business and professional men and women, the producers and consumers and the homemakers of only a few years hence. The responsibility of all the problems of our country will ultimately fall upon you. The spirit of patriotism and helpfulness which you displayed during the world war has proved your fitness for your future responsibility. Your record in production of needed materials during the war, your saving of food and money, and your investment in government securities is a record of which every American citizen is justly proud.

Places Burden on Pupils.

"It is the earnest desire of your government that you should continue to practice and make permanent those same habits of industry and economy that through your influence and example America may soon become a nation of savers and cease to be a wasteful nation; that this may be a nation of people who always save some part of their earnings, who spend money with greatest care and who invest what they save in some safe place. I am glad to see that our school boys and girls have continued during the vacation months to save their money and are buying Thrift and War Savings stamps, thus laying aside a portion of the money they earn for some future purpose, and while they are continuing to render some service to their government, they are at the same time providing for their own needs.

Happy and Interesting Habit.

"The habit of earning and saving money is a most interesting and happy one. I am sure that this habit has become so fascinating to you that you will continue to earn and save through all the months and years to come and keep investing what you save in government securities.

"It is my personal hope that the lessons of thrift that are being taught in the schools may help you to develop in your life permanent habits of saving and thereby lay a foundation for your personal happiness and usefulness and ultimately for a bigger and better America."

General Committee Named.

The Ninth district general campaign committee is composed of the following:

M. E. Harrison, director; Governor R. A. Young, Theodore Wold, A. R. Rogers, all of Minnesota; John W. Black, Michigan; J. C. Bassett, South Dakota; Norman B. Holter, Montana; Wesley C. McDowell, North Dakota; Frank P. Hixon, Wisconsin, and Mrs. C. E. Severance.

WILL the TRACTOR WORK on PLOWED GROUND?

Plowing is only part of the work a Tractor should perform.

And yet at most tractor demonstrations, both public and private, about all the work you will see done is plowing.

That Isn't Enough.

You want a Tractor that will do your harrowing and fitting and seeding and planting and not pack the ground or leave it in ridges.

And when you make up your mind that the only Tractor you will buy is a Tractor that will come up to that specification, your choice is about narrowed down to the CLETRAC.

It will be demonstrated at the home of Mr. Bane, foot of Juniper Street, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4th.

TWO IMPORTANT CIVICS CEREMONIES

Laying of Corner Stone of New Court House, Official Dedication of Northern Pacific Depot

CHAMBER COMMITTEE MEETS

Speaker at the Corner Stone Laying, New Depot Dedication May Take Form of Banquet

The Public Affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce will meet at 7:30 sharp this evening, to discuss plans for two important community functions, the laying of the corner stone of the new court house and the official dedication of the new Northern Pacific railway depot.

The board of county commissioners have requested the chamber to suggest plans for the laying of the corner stone and a speaker for the ceremonies. The building has so far progressed that these ceremonies may be held at any time and it is planned to set the date for the present month, extend a county wide invitation to the exercises and secure a speaker of state-wide reputation.

The official dedication of the new depot will probably be in the nature of an elaborate banquet at which President Jule M. Hannaford and officials of the road will be the guests of honor. These details will be taken up at the meeting of the committee, made up of the following, this evening: Chairman Henry I. Cohen, W. H. Cleary, Mons Mahlum, R. R. Wise, L. B. Kinder, A. L. Hoffman.

ELKS MEMORIAL SPEAKER CHOSEN

Judge John J. Willis of St. Paul, Well Known Jurist, Accepts Invitation From Brainerd

RESPONDS IN A LETTER

Addressed to C. D. Johnson, Writes Reminiscences of Elksdom and Praises the Order

Brainerd lodge of Elks has secured Hon. John W. Willis of St. Paul, a well known jurist, as speaker at the Elks memorial services in December.

Writing to C. D. Johnson, Mr. Willis stated:

"Answering your valued favor of Sept. 21 I may say that I had inwardly resolved to accept no more invitations from my brethren in the renowned order of Elks to deliver a memorial address. Such an address is difficult to prepare in such terms as to avoid trespassing upon religious convictions regarding the future life; and, in consequence, some auditors are in all cases, inclined to adverse criticism of what the speaker says.

"Furthermore, the exertion of traveling about, the absence from home on a Sunday, etc., are more burdensome when the 'hey-day of youth' has flitted over the mountains and has been lost to view.

"However, owing to your stalwart and faithful services to our order—services which entitle you to the gratitude of every Elks—and owing to the pleasure with which I recall personal association with you from time to time in past years, I accept your invitation and shall do my best to utter words and to present considerations appropriate to the occasion.

"With kind regards I remain, fraternally,

JOHN W. WILLIS.

FULLER SCORES VAN LEAR

Socialist's Fear of Legion Consistent, Gopher Chairman Avers

"Only those persons are afraid of the American Legion whose Americanism is tainted, and whose aim is not to uphold the constitution of the United States, but to destroy it."

This was the reply of Harrison Fuller, chairman of the Minnesota branch of the American Legion, to the denunciation of the organization at the St. Paul auditorium last night by Thomas Van Lear, socialist leader and former mayor of Minneapolis.

"Of course Mr. Van Lear is afraid of the American Legion," said Mr. Fuller. "His record of anti-Americanism during the late war made this attitude perfectly consistent.

"I should consider it undignified as well as futile to enter into an argument with him. The organization speaks for itself."

District Meetings of County Agents

District conferences of county agents are to be held throughout the state in October, on call of F. E. Balmer, county agent leader, to consider plans for the development of community organization and farm bureau federation and to prepare for state farm bureau membership, week Oct. 27 to Nov. 1. The conferences will be held as follows: Crookston, Oct. 4; Duluth, Oct. 6; Rochester, Oct. 7; Mankato, Oct. 8; University Farm and Wadena, Oct. 9, and Pipestone and Morris, Oct. 10. At these meetings matters relative to the annual farm bureau conference will be discussed.

ELKS HAVE BIG MEETING THURSDAY

Two Fawns Antlered, Applications Voted On, Vacancy in Officer's Chair Filled

SOCIAL SESSION EXCELLENT

Boxing Bout, Wrestling Exhibition, Tom Wood Makes Speech and Sings Songs, Etc.

It was a big night in Elksdom on Thursday and the attendance was well over 60. Good fellowship oozed out of every pore and the evening will be one long remembered.

The chair of Esteemed Leading Knights was declared vacant because of non-attendance and a new election took place, causing changes in several chairs. John A. Hoffbauer was elected Esteemed Leading Knight, R. E. Dunham Esteemed Loyal Knight, Walter F. Kunitz Esteemed Lecturing Knight, all by acclamation.

New Hall Considered

The offer of new hall quarters was broached by Exalted Ruler Fred L. Sanborn and was discussed at length. The Citizens State bank building third floor may be secured for a long lease and a committee of five was appointed to confer with the owner. The floor would offer the Elks an ideal location for club rooms, hall, etc.

Social Session

The social session was an attractive one. The first number was a boxing bout between Billie Kotke (Colt) weight 150, against Jack Phillips, a husky butcher weighing 185 pounds. It was refereed by a range man with Jack McGivern at timekeeper. Kotke had the speed and skill and gave a fast exhibition. Phillips' main line is wrestling, but he put up a good defense against Kotke's work and each round drew applause.

The wrestling match was more evenly matched and the contestants were Lawrence (Blackie) Clark, returned soldier, weighing 140 pounds, vs. Ed Bacon, weight 133 pounds. They went at it hammer and tongs, best two out of three falls. Clark was victor, gaining first and third falls, by hammerlock and half Nelson. The referee was Louis Sherlund and timekeeper Jack McGivern.

The next event involved the presentation of some furniture, a baby nursery chair to the secretary, John Cummins. A baby boy, first child in the family, is at the secretary's home and the boys got the furniture and Col. C. D. Johnson made a glowing speech fairly vibrating with humor and wit like a California sunshine splashing its myriad of colors over the horizon. When he got through the worthy secretary was fairly inundated and it took him some time to "come to." He responded by saying his son, now about three weeks old, had already signified his intention of joining the order and was able to give the hailing sign and the distress sign. He was acquiring a habit of being out of bed late by making his father take the floor at 2 o'clock in the morning.

Having heard so favorably from the smallest Elk in the jurisdiction, the next number was a story on experiences in the movie world delivered by the biggest Elk in the world, Tom Wood. Mr. Wood told of his travels, of his playing opposite to Charlie Chaplin and gave many amusing incidents. Charlie, from all accounts, was a temperamental person and had more changes of mood than a 16 year old girl with her first beau. Mr. Wood will soon appear at the head of his own company and from the size of Mr. Wood, he will certainly carry some weight in the film world. Later Mr. Wood strummed his ukelele and sang a repertoire of some of the choicest songs enlivening the picture studios in the far west.

Community singing was in charge of Hon. S. F. Alderman and under his guidance the whole repertoire was covered from war songs to reconstruction days, from the piping days of the Chelsea barber's daughter to "Bubbles."

The supper provided by the lunch committee carried its quota of viands and the menu was a good one ranging from potato salad to hot weiners and winding up with cigars.

R. P. Huard, returned Y. M. C. A. worker in France, told of experiences and was applauded heartily at the conclusion of his most interesting address.

Ironton people gave notice that at the next meeting they would unearth two boxes which would represent well the spirit of the range and would bring all Elks from Crosby, Ironton, Deerwood, Aitkin, Cuyuna and other points to the meeting.

A letter was read from Secretary Arthur J. Gamm, of St. Cloud lodge No. 516, wishing Brainerd a big night and sending regards from the boys of St. Cloud. The entertainment committee had written St. Cloud

MRS. RACHEL ROWLEY PASSED AWAY TODAY

Mother of C. B. Rowley Who Made Her Home With Him, Died of Cancer Early This Morning

THE FUNERAL ON SUNDAY

Remains to be Taken to Old Home in Humboldt, Iowa, Where She Resided 51 Years

Mrs. Rachel A. Rowley, age 83, widow of William C. Rowley of Humboldt, Iowa, passed away Friday morning at 9:15 o'clock at the home of her son, C. B. Rowley, 323 South Fifth street, death being due to cancer of the stomach.

She had been in failing health the past six or seven months, but continued to maintain her cheerful disposition and never complained of her lot. When she ascertained of her serious illness she showed her Christian spirit by saying the Lord's will guided her, and that she was prepared to leave whenever He commanded.

She was born in Sangamon county, southern Illinois. She was married in 1856 at Aurora, Kane county, Illinois. Fifty-one years ago the family removed to Humboldt, Iowa. In later years she and her husband, who preceded her to his reward November 16 of last year, made their home with their son, C. B. Rowley of Brainerd every winter. When Mr. Rowley passed away, her son in Brainerd planned on having her make her home here permanently and had altered his house so as to give her the most pleasant room and had provided many conveniences for her.

She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. John Thomas and Mrs. David Thomas of Humboldt, Iowa; Mrs. I. C. Barnes of Aurora, Ill., and one brother, C. G. Simmons, of Dakota City, Iowa. Mrs. Barnes and son Frank were with her in her last hours in Brainerd.

Her children surviving are the two sons, C. B. Rowley of Brainerd and F. B. Rowley of Fort Dodge, Iowa.

She belonged to the Congregational church in her younger days at home. For 30 years she had been a member of the W. C. T. U., taking much interest in its activities.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon in Humboldt, Iowa, and the body will be laid to rest beside that of her husband in the Iowa cemetery. Friends in Brainerd may see the remains until the noon hour Saturday, when the body accompanied by relatives will be sent on the St. Paul train to Iowa.

Friends in Brainerd extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

for special features and were informed their season would not be well under way until November.

A steady drive for new members is to be made by Brainerd lodge, No. 615 and more good meetings can be looked forward to.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

ATTENDING TO CHICKENS AND GARDEN

"My neighbors are surprised to see me looking so well, for they thought I would not live to see summer. I had such pain around my heart as to cause me to faint. I knew it came from bloating and pressure of gas in my stomach. A friend in St. Louis told me to use Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and I now feel better than in all my life. I am doing my own work, attending to my chickens and my garden and have cleaned house." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

NOTES of the DIAMOND

Rob Russell continues to hit homers for Minneapolis like a regular Babe Ruth.

Fewster and Vick continue to slap the ball better than some of the old timers.

The New Orleans club has sold Pitcher Jim Roberts to the Detroit Americans.

First Baseman Pete Shields has been discharged from army service and rejoins the Binghamton team.

There is no truth in the report that Grover Alexander lost his arm in the war. The old soap bone was just on a furlough.

The Shreveport club announced that the deal by which Shortstop Jimmy O'Neill is to go to Washington for a trial has been completed.

If all boxers can be developed into such accomplished boxmen as little Dick Kerr, some club should go out and sign up Jack Dempsey.

Hal Chase has Eddie Collins' superstition of placing his gum on the button of his cap and then taking it off when the pitcher gets two strikes on him.

A Milwaukee critic says that Roy Hansen, the young pitcher secured by Rowland from the Chicago White Sox, is the best relief hurler in the association.

Pitcher Gene Packard "handed in his resignation" to the Philly managers with the statement that he intended to take a job in a Pennsylvania steel plant.

Connie Mack has dug up a lot of talent, he imagines, in the Southern league. The tall tutor of the A's has been down south for several weeks hunting ivory.

Cox of the marines has secured a contract for $250 to pitch for the Detroit Tigers and will join them as soon as he draws the blue envelope from the government.

Sam Crawford is hitting well above .300 in the Pacific Coast league this season. It is a wonder one of the major outfits hasn't recalled the veteran from the bushes.

The New Orleans club is reported to have sold Outfielder Johnny Sullivan to the Cincinnati Reds. Sullivan seems to have found himself in the Southern league this year and has been going fine.

SCHULTE NOW WITH TORONTO

Frank Schulte, who recently resigned as manager of the Binghamton team, signed a contract to play the outfield for Toronto, taking a job with

$5,800,000 IS BID FOR TOWN; COST $70,000,000

Philadelphia, Oct. 2—Three bids, the highest of which was $5,800,000, were submitted yesterday for the purchase of the government-built powder plant city of Nitro, W. Va. The city is said to have cost the government $70,000,000. The highest of the bidders, all of whom stipulated that they desired to make an industrial town of the site, were Harris Brothers & Co., New York, who offered $5,800,000.

Nitro built to furnish the American expeditionary forces with high explosives, began production ten days before the armistice was signed.

The city includes housing accommodations for 20,000 persons, with hotels, boarding houses, dormitories, club houses, stores, cafeterias, a 100-bed hospital, 24-room schoolhouse, Y. M. C. A. building and mess halls.

BANK SAVINGS INCREASE

U. S. Gain 46.96 Per Cent. Financiers' Association is Told

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 2—The increase in savings for all banks in the United States was 46.96 per cent, in the five-year period ended January 1, 1919, according to data presented by Victor A. Lersner of Brooklyn in an address today at the convention of the American Bankers' association. Mr.

Lersner is president of the association's savings bank section.

"There are over 35,000,000 savings and commercial bank depositors after allowing for duplications," Mr. Lersner said, "and there are over 35,000,000 policyholders in life insurance companies."

Nominations for the association's officers for next year were announced as follows: Richard S. Hawes, St. Louis, for president; John S. Drum, Richmond, Va., for second vice president. The election is set for tomorrow.

By using at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Sure Relief

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

You Can Depend On The Man Who Advertises

Nine times out of ten you will find that the man who advertises is the man who most willingly returns your money if you are not satisfied.

He has too much at stake to risk losing your trade or your confidence. You can depend on him.

He is not in business for today or tomorrow only—but for next year and ten years from next year. He knows the value of good will.

You get better merchandise at a fairer price than he could ever hope to sell it if he did not have the larger volume of business that comes from legitimate advertising and goods that bear out the promise of the printed word.

Don't miss the advertisements. This very day they call your attention to values that tomorrow you will be sorry you overlooked.
